MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Midcareer Course

Mr. Blake and I talked with the DD/A graduates from the most recent Midcareer Course, and came upon two items which we feel are pertinent to comment on. First was the [redacted] It may be a sign of the times, but, I suggest that in the future, arrangements be pretty well laid on before we catch ourselves or a company in an embarrassing situation. The second item was a consensus that the DD/A presentation would have had more impact and made more sense cohesively if the DD/A presentations were grouped together. The DD/A presentation was on the night of 24 March, then a section of the DD/A Offices and Staff on the 26th of March, the third presentation on 3 April, and the final presentation from OF and OMS on the 4th of April. I realize that scheduling is a problem, but we would appreciate it if you could take a look at how the DD/A and its Offices could be woven together so that the presentations could build one on the other instead of being presented piecemeal.
